Dedication

GRUFFY T. GRIZZLY
Mascot of El Dorado
Junior College

To one who has served the El Dorado Junior College faithfully and well, who has inspired the teams to success, and who has fostered the development of school spirit—in short, to Gruffy T. Grizzly—this yearbook is respectfully dedicated, with the deepest appreciation for his years of loyal service. And now, a word from the matchless Gruffy himself:

“It is with the greatest pleasure that I accept this honor which has been conferred upon me. I am extremely proud to be the mascot of such an outstanding school as El Dorado Juco, and I am very happy to have this opportunity to present the people and organizations that make up the El Dorado Junior College.”

Administration

PAUL HAWKINS
Superintendent of the
El Dorado Public Schools

Gruffy Speaks: "It is with genuine respect that I present these two fine administrators, Paul Hawkins, Superintendent of El Dorado Public Schools, and Max Bickford, Dean of El Dorado Junior College."

Mr. Hawkins has been associated with the El Dorado schools for about twenty years, and he has served capably as superintendent for two years. Dean Bickford (pictured on the next page) has been with Juco since 1946. He needs no introduction to any Jucoite, for all know him as an understanding and good-natured friend. Long may they reign—these two capable leaders!

"Here is a group with whom I am indeed proud to be associated. I must admit that I was rather shy at first," confesses Gruffy, "but now I feel right at home with all these teachers."

Although the faculty members of the El Dorado Junior College are interested in maintaining a high academic standard, they are also keenly interested in the welfare of the students and try to give all possible individual help and guidance to them.

Sophomores

As Gruffy sees it, "Here are the kids that were on the 'giving' end of the freshman initiation. They went through it last year, and (according to the freshmen) did their part very thoroughly this year."

The Sophomore Class supervised the freshman initiation and the white-washing of the rocks east of town. Other activities included collaborating with the faculty to put on the spring banquet and prom, and presenting the sophomore assembly. The officers elected this year were: president, Richard Peal; vice-president, Wesley Pletcher; and secretary-treasurer, Jean Bell.

Order of the Purple

"Now here is a group of students that I really want to congratulate," says Gruffy. "They have proved themselves to be not only outstanding scholars, but also good 'all-round' representatives of Juco's fine fellowship."

Each year the faculty and the student council choose—by secret ballot—fifteen per cent of the sophomore class to be members of the Order of the Purple. Eligibility is based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. The list of qualifications includes a grade point average of at least two, enrollment in El Dorado Junior College for at least one full school year, and completion of at least twelve hours of work each semester. The members chosen this year were: James Barber, Patricia Kunkle, Jack McDonald, William Moore, Richard Peal, and Carol Seglem.

Freshmen

"Here are the babies of Juco. I think the main objective of most of the freshmen is to become sophomores. They're really good kids, though," says Gruffy.

This year the Freshman Class white-washed the letters on the hill as part of their initiation. In spite of getting as much white-wash on themselves as on the letters, the freshmen did a good paint job. Also, the class was in charge of an assembly program presented on March 21. The class officers were: president, Douglass Voth; vice-president, Nadine Simon; and secretary-treasurer, Leonard Mortimer.

Football

The football season of 1951 was one of outstanding success for Juco. Coach Bob Douglass proved once again that he is an extremely capable master of the gridiron, and in doing so was ably assisted by Assistant Coach Jim Edwards.

The team finished second in league play, losing only one game with Hutchinson, by a score of 13-0. The loss of this game gave Garden City the Western Division championship.

Gruffy T. is confident that E. J. C. will have a still more successful season in the fall of 1952, for this year's team was made up of many outstanding freshmen who learned much from their experience and will capitalize on it next season.

Football Queen

"When Nadine Simon was crowned Football Queen at the Coronation Dance, I wanted to give her a great big bear hug," admits Gruffy.

The lovely Miss Simon was elected by the football squad. The results of the election were not made known, even to Miss Simon (above), until the very moment when she was crowned "Football Queen" for 1951.

Basketball Queen

"My heart went pitty-pat," says Gruffy, "as the queen and her attendants, dressed in formals, appeared in the spotlight. They were then escorted the length of the basketball court, and Carolyn Jones was crowned Basketball Queen for 1952."

Each year the basketball squad elects three girls—the queen and two attendants—to reign over their final home game. This year Queen Carolyn Jones (pictured above), attended by Patty Lewis (below, left) and Dorothy Mosier (below, right), was presented with flowers and crowned by Captain Richard Smith.

Pep Club

According to Gruffy, "Those 'Golddiggers' are really peppy gals. It warmed my heart to see them standing in the rain, cheering the football team on to victory."

The purpose of the Pep Club is to create sportsmanship on the part of the students and the other fans, and to provide its members and the other students with a few extracurricular activities. Its activities this year included crowning the football and basketball queens, sponsoring a school dance, providing decorations in the hall at Christmas time, and putting on a humorous assembly.

Miss Fisher is sponsor of this active group, and the officers this year were: president, Rosemary Kennedy; vice-president, Carol Seglem; secretary-treasurer, Joyce Lanier; student council representative, Virginia Unruh; business manager, Dorothy Schmidt.

Cheer Leaders

Basketball

In few seasons has there been as much enthusiasm on the part of Juco students and townspeople as there was during the 1951-52 basketball season. The Grizzlies won five games by one-point margins.

The Grizzlies finished conference play with a record of six wins and four losses, winning second place in Western Division play. This rank entitled them to play in the Dodge City Regionals at Dodge. They were defeated by Mesa Juco, the Colorado state champion team from Mesa, Colorado, by a score of 58-67. The season's record for all games was thirteen wins and seven losses. The Grizzlies scored 1171 points against 1172 for their opponents.

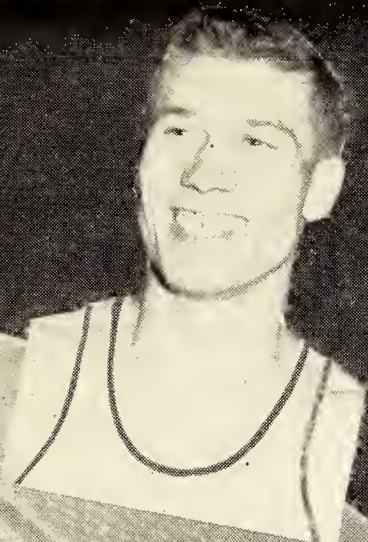

Gruffy T. is undoubtedly right when he declares that Coach Dave Weatherby has begun a brilliant college coaching career. Coach Weatherby was a master of strategy and was able to help the team by pointing out weaknesses of the opposing team. He is held in high esteem by team members, students, and faculty; and all hope that he may have even greater success with next year's squad.

Intramurals

"By my fur," quips Gruffy, "there were really some good intramural games this year. Although some of those student referees were unjust (ahem!), the players played like 'pros.'"

The intramural athletic program was organized to afford the men of Juco an opportunity at recreation under such supervision as to permit the development of teamwork and good sportsmanship.

During the year the players played in a round-robin game schedule and in an elimination tournament. They reached a three-way tie for first place testifying to the balance achieved in the assignment of the participants to the four teams.

Personnel of the intramural teams were:

Team number one: Captains, Gene Marts and Carl Leach. Players: Charles Brown, Carl Leach, Tony De Leon, Jim Liggett, Don Duncan, Joe McAdoo, Bill Johnson, Charles Pochop, Phil Johnson.

Team number two: Captains, Jim Huttenhoff and Eldon Thornton. Players: Harold Brenzikofer, Jim Huttenhoff, Paul Dennis, Orval Jackson, Lynn Guthrie, Pat Murray, Ivan Henman, Charles Remmert.

Team number three: Captains, Lou Girrens and Savoy Snyder. Players: Jim Barber, John Komer, Jerald Darnold, Richard Mannion, Dave Ferman, Larry Maus, Keith Nixon, Jack Cooper, Bill Green, Clarence Vanfleet.

Team number four: Captains, Frank Doll and Frank Highberger. Players: Don Ball, Fred Post, Bob Cabeen, Jack Riley, Warren Henrie, Larry McKown, Don Holliday, Burt Long.

Track

Since El Dorado will not participate in baseball, golf, or tennis this spring, the men will be able to concentrate all their potential athletic ability in the spring sport, track.

Three lettermen returning from last year are Bob Cabeen, Frank Stackley, and Wesley Pletcher. These men, as well as Larry McKown, Phil Johnson, Bill Johnson, Len Wilson, Bill Wilson, Harry Blanchard, Larry Davison, Norman Maher, Bill McAdoo, Jack Riley, Ivan Henman, and Eldon Eisenhower, will participate in this year's meets.

As this book goes to press, the tentative track schedule is as follows:

April 1 El Dorado, Hutchinson and Arkansas City at El Dorado

April 10 Hutchinson

April 16 Independence

April 19 K. U. Relays

April 25 Hutchinson Night Relays

May 3 State Meet at El Dorado

The National Junior College Meet at Hutchinson will feature all first-place winners in the State Meet.

Last year's meets and results are as follows:

Third in Hutchinson - Dodge City - El Dorado Triangular.

Third in Hutchinson Night Relays.

Second place for Medley Relay at K. U. Relays.

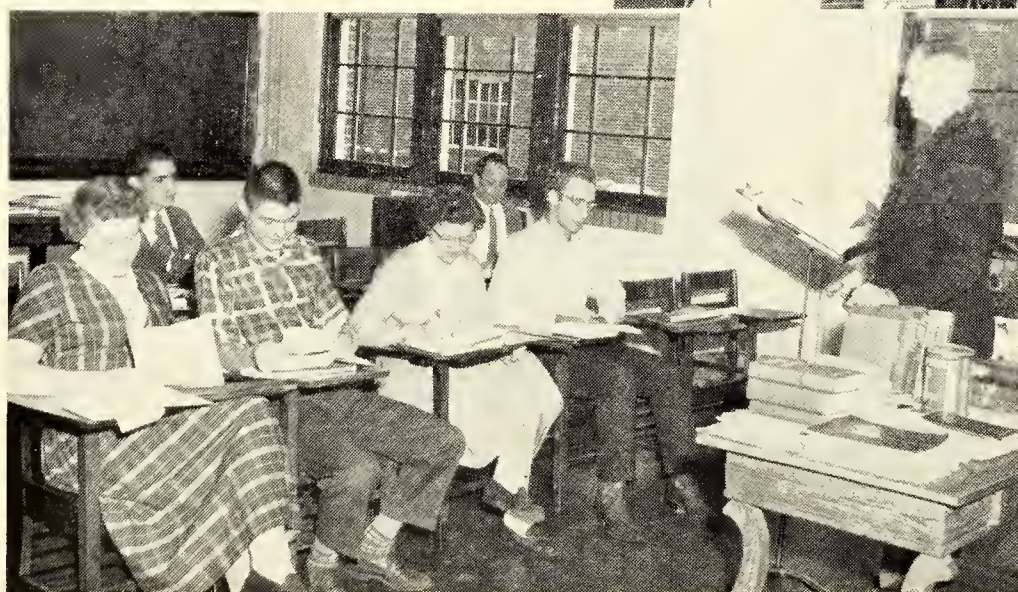

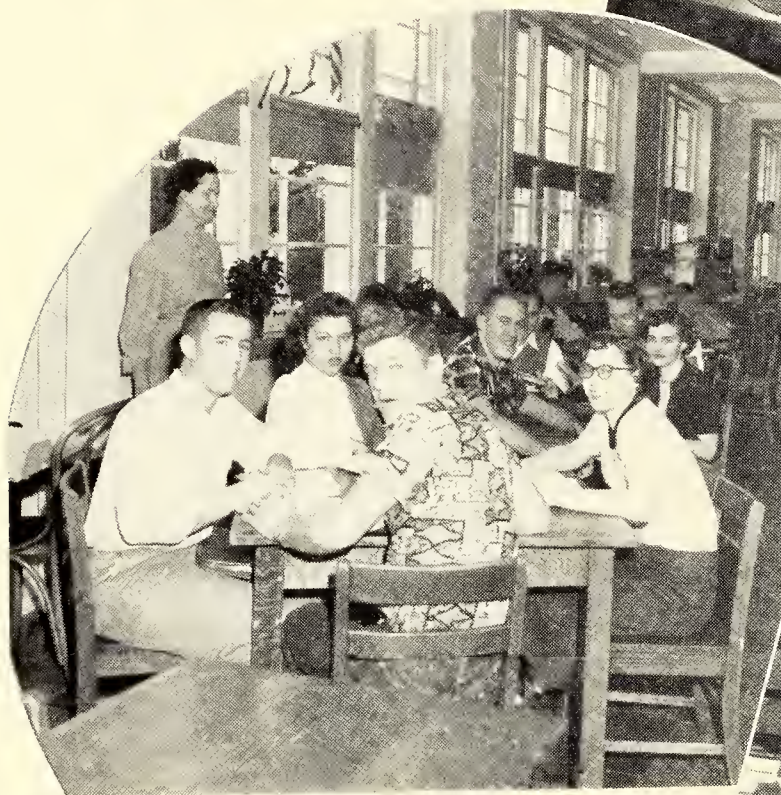

Fifth in Baker Relays.

Third in Quadrangular at El Dorado, with W. U. Freshmen, Hutchinson, and St. Johns.

Second in State Meet.

As this book goes to press, Gruffy is applauding the choice of Dorothy Mosier as candidate for K. U. Relays Queen. Her picture, with a description of her activities and qualifications, will be sent to Lawrence for careful consideration by the judges of the contest.

From top to bottom, leading down:

Mr. Nixon reads a selection to his first-semester class in American Literature.

Mr. Fuller criticizes drawings made by members of his zoology class.

Juco students gather in the library to prepare next day's assignments.

Mr. Grove explains a perplexing problem in physics.

Mr. Riggs' teacher-training students look pleased over some principle of Child Psychology.

Student Council

According to Gruffy, "Here are the guys and gals who helped to make the wheels of Juco go around. They represented the entire student body—which elected them—in dealing with any problems that arose."

The Student Council is organized to promote school activities, and to bring closer harmony between the students and the faculty. Aside from their regular duties, this group sponsored two school parties this year, and provided for the opening ceremonies of the basketball games. The officers were: president, Jim Barber; vice president, Jetta Purcell, secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Schmidt. The other members were: Dick Meyer, Richard Peal, Charles Brown, Bill Moore, Bill McAdoo, Carolyn Jones, Dorothy Mosier, Pat Kunkle, Virginia Unruh, Bill Johnson and Douglas Voth.

The cast of "Forever Albert": Douglas Voth as Hank Morris, Shirley Marley as Janice Turner, Jerald Darnold at Keith Bristol, Carol Seglem as Mrs. Ellen Turner, David Jolliffe as Albert Kirby, Marjorie Miller as Marylou Turner, Rosemary Kennedy as Mr. Jackson, Peggy Lohse as Annamae Jackson, Bill Moore as Ben Turner, Jean Bell as Lucy Turner, Joe Pat McAdoo as Benny Turner, Nadine Simon as Vivian Wilson, Lawrence Maus as Milton Rudy, and Jim Barber as Henry Lucas.

Drama

"I hated to see the curtain come down on these two successful dramatic productions," says Gruffy; "The director and the players certainly deserve a lot of credit for presenting these two fine plays."

On November 15, 1951, Director L. W. Nixon presented a three-act comedy "Forever Albert." The one-act play "Dust of the Road" was El Dorado's entry in the one-act play contest of the state speech festival for junior colleges, held April 4 at El Dorado.

The director and cast of "Dust of the Road": Bill Moore as The Uncle, Director L. W. Nixon, Carol Seglem as Prudence Steele, David Jolliffe as Peter Steele, and Jerald Darnold as the Tramp.

Pi Delta Theta

"I'm very happy to present this fine group, whose many activities were highlights of the year," says Gruffy.

Pi Delta Theta was organized for the production of plays, development of social relations, encouragement of school spirit, and production of appreciation for dramatic work and literature. The activities of this group included presenting the three-act play "Forever Albert," sponsoring the Christmas pageant, being hosts to the state speech festival on April 4 and 5, having a formal Christmas dance, initiating new members into Pi Delta Theta, and conducting the initiation of Delta Psi Omega. The officers this year were: president, Jean Bell; vice president, Carol Seglem; secretary, Frank Highberger; treasurer-business manager, Jerald Darnold; and student council representative, Charles Brown. Mr. L. W. Nixon is sponsor of Pi Delta Theta.

At the State Speech Festival, held in El Dorado April 4, Hutchinson presented the one-act play "The Pot Boiler," at a combined assembly for high school and junior college students. Actors in the farce are pictured here, with a section of the audience.

Chorus

"It's no wonder I liked to hear the chorus sing, for 'music soothes the savage beast,' you know. Anyway, I surely did enjoy sneaking upstairs to listen in when the chorus sang," declares Gruffy.

The chorus met two evenings a week, Monday and Thursday. The outstanding activity of the chorus this year was participating in an impressive Christmas program. The chorus officers were: president, Wesley Pletcher; vice-president, Dave Ferman; secretary-treasurer, Judy Lehr; librarian, Bob Burch.

Journalism Club

"Reading the 'Grizzly Growls' is always one of the highlights of the week for me," says Gruffy. "To know what the students do in their classes and outside of school makes Juco more interesting—and besides, I like to see my name in print."

The purpose of the Journalism Club is to create proper public relations between the school and the community. This is accomplished by publishing a page of school news, "Grizzly Growls," each week in the Butler County News. Miss Dorothy Fisher is the sponsor of the club, and also does much of the work. The members of the staff are: Becky Breese, Ted Knust, Jean Bell, Larry Maus, Peggy Lohse, and Ada Gildart (first semester).

Science Club

"Those scientific terms and complicated processes made my head whirl," confesses Gruffy. "However, I'm proud of these Juco boys because I feel that they will go far in this world."

The goal of the members of the Science Club is to learn more about science through informal discussions and personal hobbies. This year the discussions centered on the metermiser and the recording system. After the meetings, held approximately every two weeks, the boys usually played games, such as pingpong. Mr. S. H. Coffman is sponsor of the club, and his basement furnished a meeting place. The officers elected this year were: president, Jim Barber; vice president, Richard Peal; secretary-treasurer, Charles Brown; student council representative, Bill Johnson. Other members were: Richard Delaney, Richard Meyers, Bill Moore, Jack T. McDonald, Harold Pochop, Bill Vinson, Dick Tarrant, Don Duncan, Paul Dennis, John Komer, and Leonard Morti.

Queen

"If I were a wolf, I'd howl; but since I'm a bear, all I can say is 'Gr-r-r-r!' This lovely queen is Miss Rosemary Kennedy, a freshman from Atlanta, Kansas."

Miss Kennedy Miss Jetta Purcell, and Miss Patty Lewis were nominated by the student council as candidates for yearbook queen. Before the yearbook staff party, the student body elected Miss Kennedy as Queen of the 1952 Grizzly Growl.

King

"My candidate for the yearbook King was Richard Smith; and, tan my fur, he won!"

The student council nominated Richard Smith, Richard Mannion, and Wesley Pletcher. Richard, a local boy, was elected King of the 1952 Grizzly Growl.

At top, at the left of the picture, Patty Lewis works on the lay-outs of the yearbook dummy, while Eldon Eisenhower (front) watches a group of staff members make football banners. Seated at work are Richard Peal, Ann Schoneberg, Jean Bell, and Sharon Silor. Standing in the rear are Miss Bradford, Bill Moore, Rosemary Kennedy, Joyce Lanier, Mary Kay McKinney and Jerald Darnold.

Yearbook Staff

"Here are my buddies," says Gruffy, "the ones who helped me with the Grizzly Growl this year."

During the year the staff carried out various projects—including running the concession stand at the football games and sponsoring a school party at which the Yearbook King and Queen were crowned.

Miss Bradford is the sponsor of the yearbook. The staff members who worked with the lay-outs and the writing were:

Editor-in-Chief .. Richard Peal
 Assistant Editor . Jerald Darnold
 Feature Writers .. Ann Schoneberg
                               Ted Knust
 Photographer .... Jerry Pippig

Art Editors ..... Patty Lewis
                               Nadine Simon
 Snapshot Editors . Joyce Lanier
                               Judy Lehr
                               Mary Kay McKinney
                               Ada Gildart
                               Rosemary Kennedy

Student Council
 Representative ... Pat Kunkle
 Typist ..... Sharon Silor
 Business Manager. Bill Moore

The following students helped chiefly with the concession stand or the party: Shirley Marley, Betty Bracken, Peggy Lohse, Lavonne Leach, Becky Breese, Judy Lehr, Jean Bell, Eldon Eisenhower. The staff joins Gruffy T. in expressing sincere appreciation to all others who helped in any way with the production of this book.
